I. VOLUNTARY ON THE ORGAN.

II. "HOW LOVELY ARE THE MESSENGERS."---Mendelssohn.

III. SELECTIONS FROM THE SCRIPTURES.

IV. HYMN.

WISDOM AND VIRTUE SOUGHT FROM GOD, HENRY MOORE.

- Supreme and universal light!
 Fountain of reason! Judge of right!
 Parent of good! whose blessings flow
 On all above and all below;—
- 2. Assist us, Lord, to act, to be,
 What nature and thy laws decree;
 Worthy that intellectual flame,
 Which from thy breathing spirit came.

- May our expanded souls disclaim
 The narrow view, the selfish aim,
 But with a Christian zeal embrace
 Whate'er is friendly to our race.
- O Father, grace and virtue grant;
 No more we wish, no more we want;
 To know, to serve thee, and to love,
 Is peace below,—is bliss above.

V. PRAYER.

VI. ODE.

BY FRANCIS A. DURIVAGE.

AIR:-" The Star Spangled Banner." . . . ARRANGED FOR FOUR VOICES BY D. PAINE.

- 1. In the garb that was worn by our fathers of yore,
 When they sprang from the vales, from the mountains descended,
 And bearing the arms which they gallantly bore,
 When their rights and their homes and their lands they defended,
 We gather to-day
 In martial array
 - In marual array
 In the field to parade, at the altar to pray,
 And ready in peace and in war to uphold
 The Union proclaimed by our fathers of old.

The beacon of nations who dare to be free, And who look to the hearts and the hands that uphold The Union proclaimed by our fathers of old,

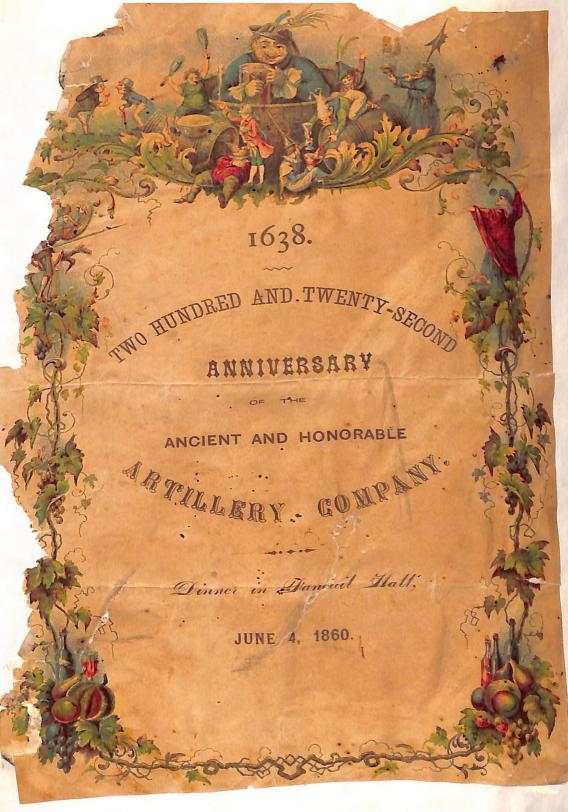

3. Fair peace o'er the land of our love reigns supreme,
And long may it be 'ere the cannon's deep thunder,
The musketry's flash and the bayonets' gleam
The veil of repose shall tear rudely asunder.
Yet war's rude appeal
Our strength would reveal
And call from each scabbard the lightning of steel,
And nerve ev'ry heart, ev'ry hand, to uphold
The Union proclaimed by our fathers of old.

While every branch is dressed in flowers.
Strike, strike the bolt of treason's hand!
For God, for Fame and Liberty,
Our country dear!

Our country dear! our country dear!
Shall Faction spurn thy holy laws?
Be wielded in disunion's cause?

Thy fairy fields, shall they be strewed With brothers slain by brother's hand? Shall fathers raise their arms of blood Against the ensign of our land? Huzza! huzza! sons of the free! &c.

Our starry flag! our starry flag!
Whose eagle sits enthroned in light,
Whose eagle sits enthroned in light,
Triumphant in the hour of fight?

ARMORY A. AND H. A. COMPANY, Boston, Sept. 30th, 1863.

Members of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company are hereby ordered to appear at the Armory, Faneuil Hall, at 9 o'clock, A. M., on Monday, Oct. 5th, next, in uniform complete, to celebrate the Annual Fall Field-Day.

Artillerists will appear in Dark Clothes, Chapeaux, and White Gloves—or in the Fatigue Uniform of the Company.

It having been determined to visit the ancient Town of Ipswich, it is desirable that as many members of the Company as possible should respond to this order, and as punctually as may be, as the Cars will leave at 10 o'clock, precisely.

Per order of the Commander.

GEO. H. ALLEN,

Clerk A. & H. A. Co.

The following additions and amendments to the By-Laws were proposed at the last Meeting, and laid over, under the rule:

ARTICLE 10, Sec. 4.—Any member of this corps who shall commit a misdemeanor by the too free use of intoxicating drinks on any parade of the Company, and march in the ranks of any section or detachment thereof, when so intoxicated, shall be dishonorably discharged by a majority of the votes of the members present at any regular meeting.

ARTICLE 11, Sec. 4. — And it shall be their further duty to report all members of the Company violating Section 4 of Article 10.

N. B. — The affessment for the Fall Field-Day Parade has been fixed at $3.00.

VI. HYMN.

By Rev. T. J. GREENWOOD. INVOCATION.

Air, - OLD HUNDRED.

Though at Thine altar mail'd we stand,
Almighty Father of our race!
We bear not war's destructive brand
To slight the teachings of Thy grace.

We seize this festal hour to bear OUR COUNTRY, in her need, to Thee, Commending to Thy guardian care The hopes of our posterity.

Long hast Thou watched, Almighty One!
The heritage our fathers gave;
Thy presence oft, in mercy shown, hy presence on, in mercy shown, In peril's hour our land to save!

And now, when Treason's arm is red With stains of fratricidal blood, By Thee may all our hosts be led, That wrong and ruin be withstood.

Thine arm of power, O God, we own!
Thy care, in all the past, we bless;
Oh! let Thy presence now be known,
To bring relief, in our distress.

Let Thy sweet love our borders crown; Let all our states unite again;
And the whole land the home be known,
Where Union, Peace, and Freedom reign.

VII. SERMON.

BY REV. T. B. THAYER.

HYMN (or Ode). OCCASIONAL

BY REV. JOHN G. ADAMS, OF PROVIDENCE, R. I.

Tune, - SAVANNAH.

Awake our song! as the glad day comes round,
When in full numbers, and with one accord,
We stand upon this consecrated ground,
To seek, implore, and praise the Sovereign Lord!

VIII.

Still lowers the war-cloud o'er our stricken land; Still mourns the nation 'mid this blood and blight; But yet we trust the great Redeeming Hand; And know "at evening time there shall be light."

For He whose word is pledged to Freedom's cause, Who to our fathers their deliverance gave, Whose perfect working cannot fail nor pause, Rules all the nations, mighty still to save!

We praise Him that this heritage of ours
His holy Word has called us to defend,—
That we, to-day, may pledge anew our powers
To meet the strife, until the glorious end!

That end will come, as comes the radiant day That end will come, as comes the radiant day,
When storms and terrors of the night are o'er;
And Freedom have new faith, new life, new sway,
From north to south, from east to western shore.

That end will come; wherever Man is found The Truth and Right are his; and God will see That they prevail the waiting world around, And all the nations, in His time, be free.

INVOCATION. BY REV. T. J. GREENWOOD.

Within this sacred dome,
Where oft our band has met,
Once more, the last, we come
To this thy mercy seat.
Though earthly temples rise and fall,
Thou art, O God, still God of all!

In centuries agone
Our fathers leaned on Thee;
Thy smile our nation's dawn
Made bright with prophecy.
Though centuries have rolled away,
Thou art our guardian, God, to day.

We own the constant care
Of Thy protecting hand;
Before Thee, hearts are bare,
And thoughts uncovered stand.
Thine arm alone to us is might,
Thy smile, alone, is all our light!

We lift our prayer to Thee,
For self, for country, — all;
Thy word can make us free
From every doubt and thrall
Ourselves, our country, and our race,
Oh, make us all to know Thy grace!

Thou God of Nations! make
Our native land Thine own,
And let our laws partake
The glory of Thy throne!
O, grant us Thy sustaining power,
'Till Time with man shall be no more!

VIII. ORIGINAL ODE.

BY HENRY GRAFTON CLARK.

Music. - Russian National Hymn.

Oh. white-winged Peace! we hail again,
Through all our bounds, thy blessed reign —
Of bitter War, divinest fruit,
And Heaven's eternal attribute!

The Sword finds Peace through War's alarms, And rudest shock of hostile arms,—
As lightning from the cloudiest sky,
Sweeps all contending tempests by.

By peaceful arts the NATION'S will Shall spread her wide domain, until, From torrid Zone to frozen Pole, One country shall embrace the whole.

Now, silent under Arctic skies, A "New Archangel" waits our eyes; While watchful walks, in circling light, The "Ursa Major" of the night.

In Union strong — and strong in Right — With such allied, untrammelled Might, We laugh to scorn Defiance hurled, AND DICTATE PEACE TO ALL THE WORLD.

Company Order.

ARMORY OF THE ANCIENT AND HONORABLE ARTILLERY COMPANY.
Boston, May 29, 1869.

SIR:

You being a member of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company are hereby ordered to appear at the Armory, Faneuil Hall, at 7½ o'clock, A. M., on Monday, June 7, next, in Uniform complete, to celebrate the Two Hundred and Thirty-first Anniversary of the Corps.

Artillerists will appear in Dark Clothes, Chapeau, and White

Gloves.

To afford time for all the services of the day, early and prompt movements will be necessary.

The Company will leave the Armory at 10 o'clock precisely, and receive the Governor and invited guests at the State House, attend the exercises at the Old South Church, march to Faneuil Hall, be seated at the table at $1\frac{1}{2}$ o'clock, P. M., and leave at $4\frac{1}{2}$ o'clock for the Common, where the Governor will take his Chair at 5 o'clock.

It is to be hoped that every member will make it his duty to be present at this Anniversary.

By Order of the Commander.

GEO. H. ALLEN, CLERK.

P. S. — The assessment has been fixed at ten dollars, except for Honorary Members and those residing over ten miles from the city, in which cases it has been levied at eight dollars.

Every member of the Company is required to pay the Anniversary assessment.

Members are reminded that it will make the duty of the clerk less laborious if they can make it convenient to secure their tickets to the Dinner in advance; and, for this purpose, the Armory will be open on Saturday previous to the parade, from 2 to 7, P. M.

ARMORY A. AND H. A. Co., BOSTON, Sept. 29, 1869.

Members of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company are hereby notified that a special meeting will be held at the Armory on Saturday, the 2d of October, at 3 o'clock, P. M.

GEORGE H. ALLEN,

Clerk

The clerk will be present at the Armory after half past 2 o'clock on Saturday, at which time Tickets for the Fall Field Day will be provided.

(OVER.)

ARMORY A. AND H. A. Co.,

Bosron, Sept. 29, 1869.

Members of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company are hereby notified to meet at the Armory on Monday, October 4, at half past 7 o'clock, A. M., in uniform complete, for the purpose of celebrating the Fall Field Day.

Complete arrangements have been made by your Committee for an excursion to the City of Portland, Me., in accordance with the desire of the Company, as follows:

The Company will go by the Boston and Maine Railroad, — a special train leaving promptly at 10 o'clock. Refreshments will be furnished at the Depot in Exeter. The quarters in Portland will be at the elegant Falmouth Hotel, where Dinner, Lodging, and Breakfast will be furnished.

It has been arranged for a special train to return, leaving Portland at 4 o'clock, P. M., of Tuesday, and refreshments will be furnished same as on the trip down.

The Commander desires that a very large representation of the Company should join in this excursion, as the arrangements made are so complete and the hospitality tendered by the Government and citizens of Portland leave no room for doubt as to the enjoyment of all who participate.

GEO. H. ALLEN, Clerk A. and H. A. Co.

P. S. All baggage must be at the Armory before 9 o'clock, A. M., on Monday, and marked distinctly with the name of the owner, "Falmouth Hotel," and, while due care will be taken for its safety, no responsibility will be assumed.

On arrival, the gentlemen will enter their names on the register, deliver their lodging cards, and be assigned to their quarters by the Hotel proprietors.

No private servants will be allowed upon the train, as ample arrangements have been made by the Committee.

None but members of the Company will be taken on the train

ASSESSMENT, $10.00.

ARMORY A. AND H. A. Co., Boston, Sept. 29, 1869.

TO THE MEMBERS OF THE

ANCIENT AND HONORABLE ARTILLERY Co.

GENTLEMEN, -

As will be seen by the official notice of the Clerk, ample arrangements have been made for the Company to visit Portland, Me, on the 4th and 5th of October, and your Committee desire to represent to you in some part the hospitality which has been extended to you.

- His Honor the Mayor of Portland, in behalf of the City Government, extends to the Company an escort on their arrival. This escort will comprise the entire military force of the city.
- 2. A committee of citizens have arranged for a grand "Hop" at the City Hall, on the evening of our arrival, and on Tuesday an excursion among the beautiful Islands in Portland Harbor, concluding with a "Clam Bake."

It will thus be seen that everything is being done by the citizens of Portland to make the visit of the Company a pleasant one; and it is to be hoped that sufficient interest will be taken by the members of the Company to appear in large numbers, thereby testifying their appreciation of the liberality of the Government and citizens of that city.

GEO. O. CARPENTER,

Chairman Committee of Arrangements.
